Bankers & Store-keepers

Bank Jokes is a humorous paper opposed to big mail order houses, department stores, chain stores, five and ten cent shops. Bank Jokes believes that true prosperity follows home trading. Bank men are "Bank Jokes" when they trade out of town, so are clergymen and town officers. Bank Jokes has been $1 a year, but for the present it is but ten cents a year. Do not send postage stamps. Address BANK JOKES, Yarmouthport, Mass.

A. James McDonald,
 Chairman Publicity Com.

The ladies of the Methodist Aid spent a very delightful afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. W. Snyder on Wednesday, January 26th.

Final arrangements were made for the installation of books for the new church library. It was decided to have Mr. J. O. Leach, reader and impersonator give an entertainment in the church on the evening of February 7. Tickets will be on sale next week. After a delicious lunch served by the hostesses, Mrs. D. W. Snyder and Mrs. T. S. Snyder, the ladies adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Talbot on Feb. 9th.

To the editor:

For the information of your patrons you may mention in your paper that the lists of vacant school sections in your vicinity are now ready for distribution to those interested.

Thanking you in advance for any publicity you may give this matter, I am,

Yours respectfully,
 R. P. Ervin,
 Commissioner.
